REFEREE'S SEND-OFF REPORT

EXPLANATION CONTINUED:

Offensive, Abusive or Insulting language by loudly shouting: "Referee, you suck. You are a damn pinhead. You're a cheat for the other team." Ms. Violencia then left the field, picked up an equipment bag and threw it onto the field. At that point the Poor Sports coaching staff was able to calm down Ms. Violencia. The referee then restarted the match without further incident by Ms. Violencia.

EDITOR'S NOTE:

1. The sent-off player committed additional acts of misconduct. Those incidents are included in the Send-off Report, but that player does NOT receive an additional send-off, and the red card is not displayed a second time.
2. When Offensive, Abusive or Insulting language (AL) is recorded, the exact language used must be spelled out, no matter how offensive or odious it is for the referee to do so. If the report contains AL, then a cover sheet can be used to warn readers.
